

Working Together 2014

Running your own successful business in today's market has its benefits and challenges. One of those challenges is a strong, stable workforce to help your business grow now and into the future.

Join us Thursday 10th April 2014 from 6.30pm for Working Together 2014 in association with Reliable Skills Pty Ltd.

Hear from industry leaders in international recruitment, migration and training who will give you the facts on how you can get what you want in an ever changing market.

This open forum will provide you with the ideal opportunity to ask anything and everything about skilled migration. You'll get direct answers from professionals with decades of collective experience in the industry.

Michael Jeremy – Registered Migration Agent | Public Speaker | Social Commentator; Michael has been a consultant to industry, government and individuals for the past 18 years. Michael is a presenter for Legal Training Australia and the Migration Institute of Australia. He will be on hand to personally answer questions and share insight into the world of migration and how it can enhance and benefit your business.

(MARN 0208955)

Mark Weare – Director/ Founder of Act Now Recruiting; works extensively with business and industry across Australia. From white collar to trades, Mark is dedicated to sourcing and selecting the best candidates. Mark covers all visa categories and trade agreements. He is passionate about finding win/win scenarios for those he works with and thrives on new challenges to deliver.

Gary Fry - Project Officer with Regional Development Australia Northern Inland. This Regional Certifying Body assesses employer nominations under the Regional Sponsored Migration Scheme (RSMS) - the Subclass 187 visa. The RCB also assesses applications from skilled migrants for NSW Nomination under the Skilled Nominated Regional Subclass 489 visa program. Gary has extensive knowledge of the Northern Inland region of NSW. He is keen to discuss the visa processes with employers and convey issues or concerns to the Department of Immigration and Border Protection.

Elizabeth Mitchell, Manager Visa Training Benchmarks for TAFE NSW – Sydney Institute will be on hand to explain how you can meet the Training Benchmarks A and B for 457 and 186 Visas. Elizabeth is a regular presenter for Legal Training Australia and can provide advice on compliance with Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) Training Benchmark requirements.

Don't miss this opportunity to take part in an evening that will assist you in finding the right solution to your personnel/migration requirements.

Working Together 2014

When: Thursday 10th April 2014

Registration: 6pm – for 6.30pm sharp start

Venue: Riverside Room, The Crossing Theatre, Narrabri, NSW 2390. Numbers are strictly limited, so reserve your place today - email mark@actnowrecruiting.com.au or ph 0428 228 667