

Art as an Industry: Moree forum

Friday 31 August 2007 at Moree Plains Gallery

Program

The forum Art as an Industry aims to enhance people's understanding of how artists and art dealers are an integral part of Australia's cultural sustainability. Topics will include comparisons of:

- city-based artists and regional artists
- curators in public art institutions and the commercial sphere
- art dealers and art buyers
- art critics and art historians
- artists and art teachers making a living

The forum is presented by Arts North West, the Northern Inland Regional Development Board and the Moree Plains Gallery. Funding is from the Department of State and Regional Development, the New England Institute of TAFE and the Moree Plains Shire Council.
